INTRODUCTION

Bharatpur Metropolitan city lies on the bank of the Narayani River which is renowned for its historical, social, economic, cultural and religious perspectives. It is the Headquarter as well as a commercial center of Chitwan district. Bharatpur is establishment in 2035 B.S. (1979 A.D.) which has been declared as municipality in 2048 B.S. (1991 A.D.) and upgraded to Metropolitan City on March 10, 2017.

It is located at the center of Mahindra (East-West) highway. The proximity of this city from Kathmandu (146 km), Pokhara (126km), Butwal (114km), Birgunj (128 km), Hetauda (78 km) and Gorkha (67km) has augmented the importance of its advantageous geographical location. In addition to good road access, Bharatpur has regular daily air services for Kathmandu, the capital of the country and Pokhara touristic city.

The population of Bharatpur Metropolitan city according to population census 2011 is now 2, 80,502. It is situated at an altitude of about 251 meters from the sea level. The temperature ranges from 10° C to 40° C. The coolest Month is January and the hottest one is June. The average annual rainfall is 1500mm.

Bharatpur is the city of migrants. Almost all people, except some indigenous group like Tharus, Darai, Kumals and Chepangs, are immigrated from different parts of the country. The migration had taken its root after the eradication of Malaria. Inception of the Rapti Valley Development Project, in the sixties, promoted another surge of migration by distributing land. So due to migration from different parts of the country combination of varieties of castes and ethnic groups are found dwelling in the Metropolitan city.
